

Miami Dade Christian Coalition Partners with Affinity4

Affinity4 Press Release For Immediate release

Norfolk, Virginia – December 1, 2005. Affinity4 proudly announces its partnership with the Miami-Dade Christian Family Coalition in Miami, Florida. Affinity4 will provide Miami-Dade Christian Family Coalition with an easy way to raise its funds. Through Affinity4's unique 10% GiveBack Program, the Coalition's members will be able to give back up to 10% of their usage of certain products and services they already use every day. Affinity4 currently offers long-distance service, Sprint wireless, and Internet access. Future services include credit cards and insurance products.

Miami-Dade Christian Coalition Executive Director Anthony Verdugo said "We are so excited about our partnership with Affinity4. This will give us the opportunity to receive much needed revenue on a monthly basis to fund our causes addressing the rights of Christians in society."

Affinity4 is a large cause-based sales and marketing company that has contributed more than $75 million to charities and nonprofit organizations worldwide. Affinity4 is proud to offer their members and supporters best-in-class products and services that often save them money and give them better support. Affinity4 directors include two national leaders, Jay Sekulow, General Counsel of the American Center for Law and Justice and T.D. Jakes of The Potter's House and TD Jakes Enterprises, whose accomplishments include 'Woman Thou Art Loosed', and Mega Fest. Both gentlemen were named one of the top 25 Most Influential Evangelicals in America by Time magazine.

Affinity4 welcomes Miami –Dade Christian Family Coalition into its family of partners. If your nonprofit organization is interested in raising its funds through Affinity4's 10% GiveBack Program, call 1-800-xxx-xxxx or visit www.affinity4.com